

The proposal would penalize responsible broadcasters who have never had a complaint about their programming filed with the FCC, in an effort to target the few stations with controversial programming.

Randy Parrott

KAIT-TV, Liberty Corp.